SPECIAL REPORT: WEST AFRICA SCHOOLS OF THE SPIRIT

School of the Spirit, Bamako, Mali

Sixty Pentecostal revivalists from six countries recently gathered for two Schools of the Spirit in West Africa. The schools were sponsored by the Acts in Africa Initiative. The delegates came together to strategize as to how they may be used by God to bring Pentecost to their respective countries. One school was held in Bamako, Mali (Jan 22-26), and another in Lome, Togo (Jan. 29–Feb. 1). During each school the delegates interceded for Pentecostal revival. During the evening rallies many believers were baptized in the Holy Spirit.

SOS Follow-up Report. Pastor Kodjo Silivi attended the School of the Spirit in Lome, Togo, on January 29–February 1. He reports, "God is at work thrusting us into the work of missions to ensure that His word is well known. . . . We at the Assemblies of God church in BE-Apéyeme, Lome, know the value of the mission of God and the power of the Holy Spirit." Following the school he gathered the women of his church for a special meeting. He writes, "We invited those present to pray to experience the baptism of the Holy Spirit. It was wonderful. Several women were powerfully filled with the Holy Spirit."

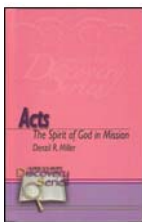

Another student, Koudjo Koumai, wrote, "From February 6-10 I conducted a School of the Spirit in my church with fifteen students attending. Later, in the town of Kara I preached on the baptism in the Holy Spirit and saw 59 filled with the Spirit. Then, on February 29, one of my students from the school went to one of our church plants a prayer vigil. The theme was "The Baptism in the Holy Spirit." All twenty-five members of this new church were filled with the Holy Spirit."

Move of the Spirit in Ivory Coast. Following the Eleventh Hour Institute in Abidjan, Ivory Coast, held on February 11-14, Pastor D. Gandonou Elie reports that he was so inspired that, when he returned to his church in Cotonou, Benin, he immediately began to preach on the baptism in the Holy Spirit and the mission of God. As a result, a powerful move of the Spirit has begun in his church.

Nigeria AG Seeks Pentecostal Outpouring. The following report appears on the official website of the Assemblies of God, Nigeria: "The Church is about to experience an unprecedented revival in the baptism in the Holy Spirit. This was the focus of the just concluded National Pastors' Conference held throughout the country recently. Under Operation 75-75, the Church is expected to monitor a spiritual growth phenomenon that will make 3 out of every 4 persons, or 75%, of its membership baptized in the Holy Spirit by the 2009, when the Church will celebrate 75 years anniversary. The Director of Corporate Planning, Rev. Uche Ama gave a detailed explanation of new plan to the leadership conference recently. The focus on the baptism of the Holy Spirit is more critical to the Church than ever, in facing the challenges of the 21st century." You can visit the website at www.agnigeria.com.
