Intercessory Prayer Call

Mobilizing the Church for Spirit Empowered Mission

As Goes the Bible School, So Goes the Church

Bible School Students in Ouagadougou, Burkina Faso, seek God during chapel service.

Someone once wisely stated, “As goes our Pentecostal Bible Schools, so goes the church.” Our Bible Schools in Africa are key to the future of the church. Pentecostal revival in our Bible Schools will inevitably translate to Pentecost in our churches. By the same token, deadness in our Bible schools will result in deadness in our churches. This month we will intercede for a powerful move of the Spirit in our Bible Schools across Africa, resulting in powerful Pentecostal and missional witnesses in the church. —Denny Miller,

Pray for Africa’s Bible Schools and Seminaries

- Pray that God will pour out His Spirit anew on our more than 200 pastoral training institutions in Africa and the Indian Ocean Basin.
- Pray that our administrators and teachers will remain full of the Spirit and focused on the mission of God.
- Pray that the students will be filled with the Spirit and active in reaching the lost.
- Pray that each institution will instill a strong missionary vision in each of its students.
- Pray for Africa’s Hope. (For more information visit <http://www.africashope.org>).
- Pray for a strong passion for church planting in our Bible schools
- Pray that each school will remain focused on fulfilling the Great Commission.
- Pray that our Bible School administrators will catch the vision of the Decade of Pentecost and lead their schools into true Pentecostal revival and mission.
