Pray for Emerging Leadership in the Africa AG

The future of the church in Africa is in the hands of its emerging leaders.

The future of any organization, including the Africa Assemblies of God, rests largely in the hands of its emerging leaders. Across the continent thousands of new leaders are arising in the church. Many are in the more than 300 AG training institutions in Africa. Others are in local churches leading men's, women's, and youth groups. All need to be empowered by the Spirit. And all need to understand their unique place in fulfilling God's mission. This month we will intercede for these emerging leaders.

— Dr. Denny Miller, Director, Acts in Africa
